Author, Motivational Speaker & Badass Agitator

Finding Your True Dream, The North Star for Your Life

“Follow your dreams!”

“Live your dream!”

Nice sentiments, but they lack substance.

How do you know what is a dream and if, indeed, it is the right dream for you at this point in your life?

Using storytelling and her sense of humour while on stage, Glenda shares a process for identifying your dream, the North Star for your life’s journey.

After experiencing Glenda speak, you will:

- Know how to identify your true dream
- Discover how taking small actions will make an impact on following your North Star
- Be reassured that accomplishing a large goal can leave you feeling lost and how to overcome that
- Realize that doing whatever it takes to fulfill your dream will be powerful and empowering

Author, motivational speaker and badass agitator Glenda Watson Hyatt inspires people who are silently screaming “There’s more to me!” and, yet, they are unsure in which direction to go to move forward. Using an iPad text-to-speech app to accommodate her significant speech impairment, she motivates audiences to identify their dream and to take action.

“The whole audience leans in to listen when Glenda speaks.”
